This package offering is designed for direct disposition and does not provide any type of closure, viewing, cremation urn, services or tributes of any type. This package is designed to provide the bare essentials and keep expenses to a minimum.

Additional expenses range from 0-$25 depending on county of death and the coroner's fee that may or may not apply. Additional charges may be incurred for bodies in excess of three hundred pounds, out of town transportation, biohazardous removals requiring special equipment for bodies in advanced stages of decomposition, extra personnel for difficult removal situations and insurance filing obstacles.

On-site, not out-sourced...the difference is peace of mind.
